

The Training Camp for Summer Reading Memorial Day - Labor Day

Organizations Offering FREE eBooks to read, or have read aloud, during READCamp

EPIC: Free eBooks, videos and resources for families, parents and teachers. Enter Class Code: plj4072. Click School. Log in as guest. Available 7 am - 3pm EST daily. Have an epic time reading!

Open eBooks: Free for Educators: Open eBooks is a library containing thousands of popular and award-winning titles that are free for children from in-need communities. These eBooks can be read without checkouts or holds. The goal of Open eBooks is to encourage a love of reading and serve as a gateway to children reading even more often, whether in school, at libraries, or through other eBook reading apps.

Storytime Online: Developed by The Screen Actors Guild Foundation, Storyline Online features accomplished actors and actresses reading some of their favorite children's books

Starfall: While some areas of Starfall are part of their premium service, they have many early reader stories available for free.

Organizations Offering Free Resources for Students and Families

Sightwords.com: Free resources to help teach your child to read.

Storynory: Features a collection of original, fairy tale, and classic children's audio stories. Students can follow along with the story as it is read to them, as the text is also included on the site. There are also some great features available that give you the option of downloading the audio to your computer, listening to "catch phrase" explanations, translating text into different languages (especially helpful for your ELL students!), and more.
